Comments
The only TF who was polite, responsive, and cared for how well her students understood the concepts.
Constanza is an excellent teacher! She hosts excellent sections and explains course content very clearly. It is always insightful to discuss concepts in microeconomics with her, as she always offers multiple ways of viewing the same idea.
During office hours, Contanza was so helpful and answered any and every question I had and was willing to spend as much time as she needed to to help me!
Great at explaining the concepts and was always available to answer our questions!
